DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

Group I. Claims 1-11 drawn to an apparatus for shredding, classified in class 241;

Group II. Claim 12, drawn to a process for shredding, classified in class 241.

Inventions of Group II and Group I are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case, the apparatus of Group I as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process and not necessarily the specific process of Group II. For example, the shredding process unit of Group I may be used to shred items other than the image display member claimed in claim 1.

In the event the apparatus of Group I is elected, Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable because this application contains claims directed to the following THREE patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Art Unit: 3725

- Group IA. Drawn to a destroy process unit destroying the data storage device physically; for example, at least claim 5 is included in this species;
- Group IB. Drawn to a destroy process unit destroying the data storage device by applying voltage; for example, at least claim 8 is included in this species; and
- Group IC. Drawn to a destroy process unit destroying the data storage device by applying electromagnetic wave; for example, at least claim 9 is included in this species.

Also, in the event any one of the above species, Group IA, IB, or IC, is elected, Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to further elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable because this application contains claims directed to the following TWO patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

- Species I. Drawn to an image display unit with a data storage device;
- Species II. Drawn to an image display unit without a data storage device.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Conclusion

A telephone call was made to the attorney of record, James Oliff, on February 4, 2005 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Jason Y Pahng whose telephone number is 571 272 4522. The examiner can normally be reached on 9:00 AM - 7:00 PM, Monday-Thursday.
